FESTIVAL

Dear Friends

We are pleased to announce that planning for our fifth Alive Festival, 5th- 7th May (early May Bank Holiday) is well under way. Delegate numbers have continued to increase, so whether this is your first or fifth Alive Festival we hope that you will feel warmly welcomed to St John's Church and the beautiful market town of Woodbridge.

Alive Festival is a time to encounter the holiness of God, meet others from across the region and be encouraged by stories of God working in local churches and communities. Last year more than 500 delegates of all ages enjoyed contemporary worship, relevant Bible teaching and were challenged to take action by the wide range of seminars, workshops, and forums in the adult, youth and children's venues.

Our three day event, this year entitled 'Equipped', is earlier in May than usual due to the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Celebrations. An exciting programme is emerging, with a range of national and regional speakers who are getting ready to equip us with God's Kingdom values.

We are looking forward to seeing you at Alive

Dave & Karen Gardner

Confirmed Speakers

This year David Bracewell will be joining us again as our main Bible teacher for the weekend. Formerly Rector of St Saviour's Guildford, David has a unique blend of humour and depth of Biblical knowledge.

In addition to the Adult venue there are separate venues for the under 18's. This year we welcome back Rich Powney as the main speaker for Alive Youth. Rich, now studying at Bible college, was a massive hit last year, and returns to inspire and encourage drawing on his previous experience as a youth worker with Viz-A-Viz, Essex.

Alongside David and Rich here are just some of the speakers that will be joining us over the weekend:

- ▶ Michael Mitton (Fresh Expressions Adviser, writer and speaker)
- ▶ Brian Draper (London Institute of Contemporary Christianity and former editor of 'Third Way')
- ▶ Craig Hutton (Hadleigh Youth Project)
- ▶ Rosie Bunn (New Wine)
- ▶ John Wright (Evangelist)
- ▶ Judy Hunt (Archdeacon)
- ▶ Grant Sheppard (Director of World Sports Ministries)
